

Kevin O'Toole to Speak at 2011 Council on Litigation Management Conference

February 1, 2011

New York, NY – Mr. Kevin O'Toole, Partner at O'Toole Fernandez Weiner Van Lieu, LLC has been selected to speak at the 2011 Annual Conference of the Council on Litigation Management (CLM). Mr. O'Toole is slated to speak on the topic “Developing Issues in Asbestos and Toxic Tort Litigation, From a Carrier's Perspective (Response Management and Cost Controls: the Do's and Don't's and the Growing Environmental Issues for the Carrier).”

The conference will be one of the largest, fully inclusive defense industry conferences in 2011. It will be held March 23-25 in New Orleans, LA, will feature approximately 250 speakers and is expected to draw attendees from around the world. Registration for the conference is now open at www.litmgmt.org/annual-conference.

Kevin J. O'Toole is a nationally recognized litigator with an emphasis in environmental, toxic tort and complex litigation matters. Kevin has been retained by Fortune 500 companies to provide litigation strategy and risk management. Kevin received his B.A. degree from Seton Hall University (1986) and his Juris Doctor degree from Seton Hall University School of Law (1989). He currently serves in the New Jersey Senate.

About the Council on Litigation Management

The Council is the largest fully inclusive defense organization, comprised of thousands of insurance companies, corporations, corporate counsel, risk managers, insurance professionals, claims adjusters and attorneys. Through education and collaboration, its goals are to promote and further the highest standards of litigation management in pursuit of client defense. The Council sponsors educational programs, provides resources, fosters communication, and recognizes lawyers who meet high standards. To learn more about the Council, please visit www.litmgmt.org